Great Spanish 1 Book

By Zach

The story began in Paris, France during the Spanish Civil War. A place you wouldn't expect to be seen in a spanish novel. The plot of the book is pretty straight forward, Get the spear of destiny. The spear of destiny is a special spear that everyone is trying to get. Everyone being Paula, Luis, Mario and Javier. Mario and Javier are spies for General Francisco Franco. Mario and Paula have a crush on each other and the romance continues throughout the book. I thought the book was quite good for what it was. I thought it was a bit dry but was still surprised. I thought it was just going to be god awful. I definitely recommend this book for early spanish learners.

I loved the settings

By Amazon Customer

I am a Spanish major and have been to the Prado to see Picasso's Guernica but I still learned a few interesting facts. It is written on a very low level of Spanish. This is not a book written for children but those learning Spanish. There is a big difference and publishers are only now realizing this. The font is large and double spaced and there are lots of historical photographs. I found the chase scenes a little silly and the timing seemed off. The ending was also a bit abrupt. Overall, it was very enjoyable reading with interesting settings.
