If you are about to become a father, you have before you the opportunity of a lifetime. Birth is an interruption in the ordinariness of everyday life, a moment when the veil between the worlds is opened. If you are willing to enter into that moment with your full attention and stay present, with all of your senses, you will return to your life with everything you need to grow into your new fathering role connected more deeply to your Self, bonded with your child, and more capable of loving relationships. And you will never be the same.
