Review

Praise for previous editions:

"Comprehensive, theoretically sophisticated, and empirically rich. Right now, this is quite simply the best textbook in the field." -- Craig N. Murphy, Wellesley College and President, International Studies Association 2001/2

"A well-pitched, concise and accessible introduction to the fast-changing field of international political economy. Studies will be engaged by the authors' judicious blend of theory, history, and contemporary evidence." -- Louis W. Pauly, Director for International Studies, University of Toronto

"This is an excellent book...comprehensive in its approach, informative but highly original, presenting a pertinent and well sustained argument." -- Rodica Milena Zaharia, The European Legacy
