Insightful, helpful

By Kathryn Geller

This book was very informative, funny and helpful. Lisa is a great cheerleader and she's whom you wish you had as a best friend, whether you are in "woo-hoo" or "boo-hoo" mode (read the book, you'll understand). With so many "self help" books, you read them, but still finding yourself wondering what you should do next. This book was clear cut, and helped me during a time that I needed to end my relationship. It made me less emotional, helped us end things without hurt feelings, and will help me move on, without pining or second guessing my decision. Thank you!

Amazing!

By W. Reese

I can't say enough about how much I enjoyed this book. What a great resource for any woman who has had her heart broken and is trying to move on. Read this book and you'll know you are on the right track. Lisa has such a wonderful writing style, you'll feel like she's one of your girlfriends (with much better advice) She's absolutely sincere and empathetic because she's been there--although she's happily married now. Lots of dating tips, things to avoid and how to move forward plus info on her website and many more ideas and links to get you started. You won't be disappointed!

I read the first few chapters and felt like Lisa was sitting right next to me telling me how amazing and sexy I was! Seriously, this book is like chicken soup for the newly single girl. This book opened my eyes to what kind of dater I am, it made me be more introspective and helped me figure out why I was getting the same boring dating results.
