The life-long influence(S) of reading '33 Years of Espionage'/I ve been looking for this book for, ALMOST, 40 years.

By Terry Robinson

I am 61 years old. The last time I saw this book, I WAS a teenager. This book represents the "REAL" stories of espionage (i.e. the stories of the REAL stories of Mata Hari [she was a scape-goat and an excuse for the WWI French losing so many battles], (Prussian) Fraulein Doktor, etc., etc..). It also encouraged me to study foreign languages. I am presently "conversant" in Chinese, Japanese, Russian, with a "splattering" of French, German and Spanish; Tagalog was taught to me by my former girlfriend in the Philippines; in short I developed a HUGE talent, skill, ...whatever for foreign languages because of this book. ALSO, my being an Asian Studies major in college, ...AND my experiences in the U.S. Navy, home-ported out-of Yokosuka, Japan, and traveling extensively throughout east Asia, for approximately four [4] years, all started with this book; it IS my bible, ..hence FINALLY (!!!) getting it is more personal than I can say here.
