The human race is ill. One story above all reveals the sickness at the core of the human psyche... the tale of the Tree of Knowledge. What does it say about the human race that knowledge is associated with the loss of paradise, with the forbidden, with the defiance of the rightful authority (“God”), with alliance with the serpent (the Devil), and with the advent of suffering, sin, and death?! Why should we be surprised that Martin Luther, the founder of Protestantism, described reason as “the Devil’s whore”? Why was Socrates put to death by Athenian democracy? Why has no genius ever been a king, prime minister or president? Why are intellectuals held in contempt? Knowledge and reason have always been viewed by the human race as distasteful, suspect, unnatural, and likely to lead to trouble.

Of course, the smartest human beings have always taken the opposite view. It’s ignorance, faith and irrationalism that are holding back humanity. The allegory of the Ship of Fools derives from Plato, one of the world’s greatest geniuses, and describes the disaster that will befall a ship if the crew gets rid of the navigator..., i.e., if the fools, contemptuous of knowledge and expertise, put themselves in charge of steering the vessel.

Human history has been subject to three disastrous forces – three Horses of the Apocalypse, we might say. They are: 1) the power of violence (war, military strength... everything that’s sustained by brute force), 2) the power of stories (religion, monarchy... everything sustained by the beliefs people hold, by the Mythos they have chosen to explain their lives to themselves), and 3) the power of money (the universal currency for buying what you want, for getting people to do what you want because they crave the money you can give them).

Human societies have always been ruled by military elites, or Mythos elites (religious or royal), or rich elites. They have never been ruled by intellectual elites.

Humanity could be saved by knowledge, understanding, reason and logic, but these have always been despised by the average person. Plainly, none of these things plays any role in the lives of typical Muslims, Jews, Christians, Sikhs, Buddhists, Hindus, Taoists, or consumer capitalists. They play no part in prayer, meditation and going shopping. No one in the West says you can be “saved” by maximizing your intelligence; no, you must instead maximize your irrational faith. No one in the East says that the path to Enlightenment is the one concerned with the most rational ontology and epistemology; no, you must cross your legs, close your eyes, and literally try to escape from your own mind – the exact definition of a Mindless ideology! No capitalist says that anything other than buying stuff can make you happy.

In comparison with the three Horses of the Apocalypse, intellectual attributes have never played a decisive role in human affairs. They have always served the Horses, and never controlled them. The intelligentsia have always been advisers, and never those occupying the throne and taking the decisions.

What would happen to the world if Logos people rather than Mythos people were in charge, if smart people rather than military people were in charge, if people of knowledge ruled rather than people of wealth? The world would be transformed. Humanity would undergo a wondrous metamorphosis.

A political system exists that can deliver this New World Order... a world where intelligence becomes the most valued resource. It's called Meritocracy.

Meritocracy: The Only Hope Humanity Has Left

By Brad Gumm

I just began reading "The Case for Meritocracy", the newest book by Michael Faust, and it's already absolutely amazing. "The Case for Meritocracy" is one of a series of books written by the Pythagorean Illuminati. You can find all of the Illuminati's books on Amazon under the authors: Michael Faust, Adam Weishaupt, and Mike Hockney. The books written by the Pythagorean Illuminati are unlike any other books on this planet. In them you will discover the answers to all of humanity's most sacred and profound questions. Would you like the proof of your soul? Would you like the proof of an afterlife? Would you like to know how to create the universe? Would you like to know if goddesses and gods truly exist? Would you like to know what black holes are? You will find definitive, mathematical answers to each and every one of the above questions and many, many more when you read the books by the Pythagorean Illuminati. These books are in a class all to themselves.

"The Case for Meritocracy" is a book describing the political philosophy of the Pythagorean Illuminati. If you are looking for a Truly rational political system, then you have found it here. In fact, Pythagorean Meritocracy is beyond rational, it's Hyperrational, and it's the only hope humanity has left to save itself from extinction. What is hyperrationalism? Hyperrationalism is the philosophy that mathematics is EVERYTHING, therefore, hyperrationalism is the philosophy of ontological mathematics, which means it's the philosophy of reality.

Ontological mathematics proves to us that reality comprises ALL of mathematics, and the spacetime domain of "matter" is but one component of the vast mathematical cosmos. This means that every single number Truly exists, in fact, it means that numbers are the ONLY things that Truly exist.

Hyperrationalism is the only philosophy that acknowledges that reality is 100% mathematics. Hyperrationalism takes the profound Truth that mathematics is all, and shows exactly what this means for humanity. Hyperrationalism is the grand philosophy that shows humanity how to live in mathematical harmony with each other. It's the philosophy that shows humanity how to build a heaven on Earth that perfectly reflects the harmony of the hyperrational, ontological mathematical cosmos. This heaven on Earth begins with the hyperrational governmental system of Pythagorean Meritocracy, or simply Meritocracy.

Meritocracy, at core, is all about government that provides absolute equal opportunity for every single child on the planet to learn, thrive, and develop to the greatest extent of their individual talents and ambitions. It is government fueled and driven by the highest human values: Reason, Community, Integrity, Initiative, Excellence, and Self-Discipline. It is government with the highest visions, the highest aspirations, the highest goals, and the most profound sacred cause of bringing about an entire world where absolutely everyone enjoys equal opportunity to become the best that they can possibly be. This is the exact world depicted on the show "Star Trek", and a Pythagorean Meritocratic Republic can make this type of world a reality.

It's our choice though. The Pythagorean Illuminati have provided humanity with the blueprint of how to save ourselves, and it's called Meritocracy. It's now up to us whether or not we're going to effectuate the design. For a Meritocratic Republic to come into being, humanity, in general, must become much more rational. We must at least get to the point where we are rational enough to understand that society MUST be governed by its most intelligent/rational members. There is no other way. Up to this point, human society has been exclusively governed by psychopaths. Psychopaths have created many "political systems" but they all seem to do only one thing, namely, increase the power of psychopaths. A world governed by super powerful psychopaths is the world we see in front of our eyes every day, and it's the world that is edging closer and closer to the abyss. Only humanity's intellectual elite can save us.

When I refer to the "most intelligent/rational" and the "intellectual elite", it's important to note that I am absolutely not referring to our contemporary scientists, a.k.a. scientific materialists. Today's scientific establishment is infested with, and controlled by, the same types of irrational psychopaths who have brought the world to its knees. Scientists are the people who have created the most horrendous weapons of mass destruction to be distributed all over the world, including nuclear bombs that can END ALL LIFE ON THE PLANET. These weapons are causing unprecedented misery and environmental destruction all over the planet, and scientists have the gall to pretend to be concerned with global warming and the fate of life on this planet. What a joke. These people have no regard for life; they are the absolute enemies of life, plain and simple. Scientists are NOT the intellectual elite, no matter what the propaganda they sell us says. No, scientists are the enemies of the intellectual elite.

The intellectual elite are the most hyperrational, ontological mathematical, philosophers on the planet. It is these people who need to be in charge of the governance of society for the benefit of all. With humanity's most rational members at the helm of society, we can finally begin constructing a New World Order based on Pythagorean Illuminism and Pythagorean Meritocracy. Once this New World Order of reason is in place, humanity will be set to realize its full potential and we can at last begin to Truly LIVE.

So, you can see that if humanity wishes to enjoy a world with equal opportunity for every child, woman, and man to thrive, then, for the first time in history, humanity's most intelligent members MUST be put in charge of human society. This means that the psychopaths must be dethroned, and we all know that they won't go willingly. It's going to take a fight, but it's a fight that we can win if we walk the path of Pythagorean Illuminism.

If you're truly sick and tired of all the irrationality, stupidity, and insanity that is omnipresent on this planet, then you need to read the books written by Michael Faust, Mike Hockney, and Adam Weishaupt, a.k.a. the Pythagorean Illuminati, as soon as possible. These books will teach you everything you ever wanted to know about the religion of Pythagorean Illuminism, the philosophy of Hyperrationalism, the political system of Meritocracy, and the discipline of Ontological Mathematics.

Once you begin reading the books by the Pythagorean Illuminati, you will begin to feel the urge to change the world for the betterment of all. As soon as you feel this urge, begin to take action. Think about what you can do to help spread the word of Pythagorean Illuminism, Pythagorean Meritocracy, Hyperrationalism, and Ontological Mathematics. The main thing is to just get active about spreading the message, many more people must discover these books before humanity will be able to change, and I fear we're running short on time.

If you are serious, and would like to learn even more about Pythagorean Illuminism and begin to work with other like minded Pythagorean Meritocrats, then you should check out the ONLY official websites of the Pythagorean Illuminati: meritocracyparty.org, and pythagoreanilluminati.com. Each of these sites have corresponding Facebook pages that are also packed with information.

So, the bottom line is that this planet is running out of time. Death loving lunatics are everywhere. Sooner or later they're going to kill the planet and everything on it unless we choose to fight back. To properly and effectively fight back we need a plan, a blueprint that all rational people can agree upon and begin to implement in a systematic manner. As I said above, the Pythagorean Illuminati have provided us with that plan, and it's called Meritocracy.

Now is the time for the greatest struggle in human history, the struggle between reason and unreason, to finally come to an end. The final battle is looming and you must choose sides. Will you assist the life hating psychopaths in their destruction of the planet by choosing to be passive in the face of their brutality. Or will you stand up, become the heroine/hero you were born to be, and join with the life affirming, ontological mathematicians of the Pythagorean Illuminati in their struggle to bring about a New World Order of equal opportunity for all.

I know my choice, I stand with Pythagoras and the secret society he created: The Pythagorean Illuminati.

excellent book on Plato's system in the best contemporary political series

By David Melik

This is the best (along with his others and those of the two associated writers) introductory modern series on rationalist idealism in Classical Greek & Cartesian & German Idealist philosophy & postmodernism, including Pythagoreanism/Illumination, Platonism, Hermetism, Gnosticism, Leibnizianism, Hegelianism, formal & natural & social science, religion, and the arts, in this case on sociology & psychology & politics & economics, Platonic society, mathematics, etc.

By Pawe? Bart?omiej Kowalski

The general impression I have had reading this book is that it was written by a 17-year-old who received a good grade on his Philosophy essay and decided to extend it into a full-length book. The style is very demagogic (reads more like a speech than written work). A lot of claims are made and they are rarely backed by evidence.

The author recalls the Dunning-Kruger effect and seems to be unable to apply it to themselves. The general impression that I have is that the author(s) decided to blend "mainstream" Western philosophy with the works of the likes of Aleister Crowley and understood neither.
